Dear Mrs. Layman:

We are in receipt of your letter concerning the birth certificate for Sarah Jane Steele.

We can accept two documents which give her full maiden name as Sarah Jane Strong if the documents were established soon after the date of birth.

Upon receipt of the required documents we will make the correction.

Very truly yours,

Re: Birth certificate for Sarah Jane Steele

Dear Mr. Benson:

Sarah Jane Steele went under the name of Sarah Jane Strong as Strong was her step-father's name. However, at the time of using the last name of Strong, Sarah Steele did not know that her name was Steele but assumed it to be Strong. She did not know otherwise until she was 28 years of age and all her business registrations and records were in the name of Strong.

Your department has acknowledged that the name should have been Steele as shown on her birth certificate. The only problem that remains is that Georgia was used as the first name instead of Sarah Jane on the birth certificate.

It is impossible to obtain documents giving the full name of Sarah Jane Steele as the name of Steele was not used. Since it is only the first name in question, would your department accept other evidence i.e. that of Sarah Jane Strong ?

Enclosed is a letter showing that Sarah Strong attended school in Lewiston. This establishes the first name as Sarah, not Georgia. Would it be possible that the affidavit of the mother plus this information would be sufficient to change the first and second names? If this is not sufficient, would you please tell me what procedure would be acceptable to your office considering that records of Sarah Jane Steele do not exist.

Very truly yours,

Lois Layman
